Business Photographer

Where everybody looks great!

I would like to present to you, PhotographybyLuigi, specializing in corporate and social event photography since 2013. Some of you might remember me as Luis Modesti, from my days as the Senior Market IT Manager for Marriott International. I have turned my passion for photography into a full time business serving the hospitality industry.

As an Event Planner, your goal is to assist your clients plan for a successful event. As a Corporate Photographer, my goal is to chronicle the most important moments of the event. Capturing and highlighting those moments that will strengthen the client's brand and foster relationships.

I invite you to visit my webpage and preview some of my work and the services that I offer my clients, such as...

- Photography Event Services
- Executive Business Head Shots
- Website Social Media Imagery

I look forward to collaborating with you at your next event.
